Calaveras County Clerk-Recorder & Registrar of Voters

November 3, 2020 Presidential General Election

Ballots went out in the mail today, and voters should see them arriving in their mailboxes beginning October 9th. Sign up at wheresmyballot.sos.ca.gov, to track your ballot and receive automatic email, text or voice call notifications.

Ballot drop boxes were installed in Angels Camp, Valley Springs, San andreas, West Point, Copperopolis, and Arnold for voter convenience. Ballots may also be returned by mail in the postage paid envelope. Mailed ballots must be postmarked by November 3rd, and received by November 20th.

Vote Centers are open October 31st – November 3rd if you need assistance, want to vote on an accessible tablet, need to obtain a replacement ballot, need language assistance, need to register and vote in person, or any other reason.

The Elections Office is asking voters to follow local health guidelines by wearing a face covering and maintaining 6 feet of social distancing when voting in person.

A complete list of voting locations and ballot drop boxes may be found by going to <https://elections.calaverasgov.us/Next-Election/Presidential-Election/Where-to-Vote>.

Please contact the Elections Office at (209)754-6376, with any questions regarding this press release.
